

Shopping on Saba

You will not find any brand names stores on Saba, what you will find is a variety of unique and high quality shops offering hand crafted and some one of a kind pieces.

Take a walk down the main road situated in the heart of Windwardside and you will find the following shops:

- Everyt'ings

Everyt'ings has everything you could wish for to remind you of your visit, or to take home as gifts for your loved ones. Souvenirs such as tee's, polo's, caps, fleeces, glasses, magnets, postcards, photos, mugs, flags, locally infused rums, Saba Spice, local lacework, as well as handmade jewelry and greetings cards, are purchasable. Toys, games, clothing, footwear and much more are also available.

Visa and MasterCard Credit accepted

Open: 9am to 6pm Monday to Saturday; 12 noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Web: www.etsaba.com

Email: info@etsaba.com

Phone: +599 416 2518

- Five Square Art Gallery

Featuring works by local artists this gallery is full of bright Caribbean paintings, including undersea scenes, charming Saba cottages, and mysterious rainforest locally made jewelry, pottery and more.

Visa and MasterCard Credit accepted

Open: 9am to 6pm Monday to Saturday; 12 noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Web: www.fivesquareart.com

Email: fivesquareart@gmail.com

Phone: +599-416-2509

- Kakona

The Taino word for trinkets of value and objects of worth, Kakona... Indigenous cultures knew to honor and respect the Mother Earth. The Kakona initiative pays tribute to Saba's roots while adding contemporary artistry, Keepsakes that are Aesthetic, Creative, Original, Nature-based, Authentic works...striving to blend Saba's past and present—each with its own story. Working with a cross section of local artists from varied backgrounds, our goal is to highlight their work and inspire others. Products include locally crafted knives, locally crafted well-being products, Saba sentiments, locally made art pieces including alternative canvases, baskets, and unique jewelry all made with a touch of Saba.

Visa and MasterCard accepted

Web: www.kakonasaba.com

Phone: +599-416-2362

- Sea Saba Dive Center

Come visit Sea Saba for an extensive selection of sportswear, swimwear, hats, Merrell and Columbia hiking shoes, Kipling bags, Cobian flip flops, and more. Don't miss out on seasonal and specialty items including sun dresses from JAMS World, jackets, coats, and polo shirts. As a dive center, Sea Saba specializes in diving and snorkeling equipment including fins, masks, snorkels, and many other scuba diving related products. Let Sea Saba be your outfitters for adventure or leisure.

Visa and MasterCard accepted

Open daily

- The Jewel Cottage

A very personal and romantic 150-year-old Saban shop infused with Old World Caribbean charm thoughtfully blended with an exotic atmosphere. Collector, Mark Johnson offers an awe-inspiring collection of fairytale jewels made with the highest quality gems from exotic, far-flung places. Each exclusively crafted treasure tells a story that speaks to the heart. Please visit in person in the center of the Windwardside.

Visa and MasterCard accepted
Phone number: +599-416-6150
Open daily: 9:00am-6:30pm
Thejewelcottage.com

Located in Booby Hill

- JoBean Glass Art

Handmade Italian glass jewelry and sculptures, ranging from Pandora beads to beautiful mermaids. Inspired by the Caribbean blue waters and green islands are: earrings, bracelets, necklaces, sea hearts, horses and starfish. Unique creations for family and company events. JoBean has open-studio where you can watch her handcraft her beads, or take a class yourself. The beads you make will serve as a souvenir for your Saban experience.

Telephone: +599-416-2490
<http://www.jobean-glass.com>

Located in Fort Bay

- Saba Conservation Foundation, a non-profit nature management organization, is in the harbor offering T-shirts, rain jackets, souvenirs, maps and more. All proceeds go directly to the Saba Conservation, supporting their mission of preservation and enhancement of the marine and terrestrial environment on Saba through education, scientific research, monitoring and enforcement.

Located in the Bottom

Currently Closed

- The Artisan Foundation is in the village of the Bottom and is a must see on your trip to Saba, especially if you are looking for some unique souvenirs to take back home. The Artisan Foundation sells a variety of hand-crafted items such as bags, locally made Saba lace, dolls, t-shirts, artwork, and more. In addition to these items, you can also find locally made rum and liquors, including the famous "Saba Spice."

Cash Only

Closed for renovations

